

Sent: 2002-09-17 - 20:50
Subject: Postcard

This is Ouray, coming north on US 550. If you stop on one of the switchbacks you see the whole town laid out:

Within walking distance of our hotel (building lower left corner) are the Box Canyon Falls. You walk down to the bottom and are in a box. Hence the name:

Took a quick side trip to Telluride. Telluride is the name of a gold-bearing ore containing the element tellurium. This ore is not found here. Telluride, the town, is Silverton trying to be Vail:

So many gift shops; so few days...

D&S

M&D