On our way home now, but there are still some scenes you need to see:

A Lizard

A Quail

Some Pigs

Way too many wind chimes

A Datura

She knows no fear

Haven't a clue

And what we did at midnight last night in our pajamas.

But it was OK because everyone else was doing it too.

Yeah it was a false alarm. No, we didn't get our money back.

See you next time.

When there is a next time.

Thanks for coming along.
